

Section 11.8 Fencing and Walls Construction

A. General: All required fencing and walls shall be constructed and maintained in a sound manner to assure long-term structural integrity and visual character. Site plans shall include all necessary construction details to illustrate compliance with this requirement. The finished side of fencing shall face abutting properties.

B. Section 20.9: See also Section 20.9 for additional provisions regarding fences and walls.